15TH IPHS CONFERENCE

INTERNATIONAL PLANNING HISTORY SOCIETY
BRASIL | SÃO PAULO | 15–18 JULY 2012

THEME OF THE CONFERENCE | “CITIES, NATIONS AND REGIONS IN PLANNING HISTORY”

Cities and the planning of cities are major factors in territorial occupation, regional development and national modernization. They are an inseparable part of economics reconfigurations, geo-politics and cultures of the territory.

The proposed theme addresses to the persistent question of how to overcome territorial disparities and asymmetries in the sphere of planning history. It is an attempt to detect connections and discontinuities, tensions and superimpositions, both in the processes of urbanization and the planning field. As such, it brings to the foreground practices, concepts, and meanings related to the links between cities, the nation and different regional scales.

In summary, it attempts to advance the comprehension of planning history in distinct space – time conditions in terms of social, economic, political and cultural dynamics.
